If yes, list the anticipated number of trips per year and their purpose: We have examiners who are instructors at two or three training courses each year. The Conference of State Bank Supervisors pays all expenses related to those teaching assignments. Six employees of the IDOB hold key positions on national boards/committees (please see detail below). Travel expense to some meetings is covered by CSBS.

DESCRIBE WHY THIS MEMBERSHIP IS IMPORTANT TO THE WORK OF YOUR DEPARTMENT.

CSBS is the only organization in the nation that certifies and educates bank and mortgage examiners. In addition to the education aspect of the organization, they are also the main voice in Washington, DC for state and community banks across the nation. They were one of the first to rally on behalf of the community banks during the hearings related to financial reform. Our employee participation in committees and boards at CSBS gives Iowa a voice at the national level of regulation. Currently the IDOB holds membership and leadership positions in the following boards/committees:

Jim Schipper, Superintendent of Banking – Co Chair of Bankers Advisory Board

Vaughn Noring, Bank Bureau Chief – Chair of State Supervisory Processes Committee

David Huang, CIO – member of Technology Committee

Tracy Bergmann, Regional Manager and Vaughn Noring – members of the Education Foundation of State Bank Supervisors Board of Trustees

Gretchen Chamberlain, Senior Examiner – member of State Examiner Review Team

Craig Christensen, Senior Examiner – member of Mortgage Testing Education Board

DESCRIBE HOW MEMBERSHIP IN THIS ORGANIZATION WILL BENEFIT THE TAXPAYERS OF THE STATE OF IOWA.

The regulatory industry is only as good as the people they employ who are making those regulatory decisions. The Conference of State Bank Supervisors ensures consistency in training among examiners across the nation by providing training and certification programs for bank and mortgage examiners. Our goal is to maintain our excellent level of service to the citizens of Iowa by ensuring our examiners are held to the high standards of excellence that CSBS requires through their certification program. As of now, only three of our newest examiners are NOT certified by the Conference of State Bank Supervisors.

CSBS has been and continues to be our eyes, ears, and voice in Washington. Several new laws were put into place with the latest financial reform package. CSBS is instrumental in assisting the Iowa Division of Banking and all other state regulators with the interpretation and implementation of new regulations.

DESCRIBE THE FREQUENCY AND TYPE OF CONTACTS YOU EXPECT YOUR DEPARTMENT TO HAVE WITH THIS ORGANIZATION: At least weekly and many weeks we have contact on a daily basis via phone conversations, teleconferences, and webinars. Our participation in national level committees and boards occurs in all of the aforementioned formats in addition to periodic face-to-face meetings which require travel. Also, two IDOB Examiners serve as instructors for certification classes and are instrumental in creating new curriculum for the various training programs. The financial industry is always changing and adding new services and our examiners must remain up-to-date on those changes, as well as any changes in legislation that affect the financial industry.
